

Defense 'Shakeup' Report Given Kennedy

Abolishes 3 Cabinet Positions

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — Sweeping changes in the American defense establishment, including abolition of the Army, Navy and Air Force secretaries, with a possible annual saving of $8 billion were recommended today to President-elect John F. Kennedy.

After receiving the defense reorganization report from Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., Kennedy said it was "an interesting and constructive study which I am sure will be carefully analyzed by the Congress and the incoming administration."

THE RECOMMENDATIONS resulted from a study requested by Kennedy during the campaign and conducted by Symington and a committee of five members, including four former officials of the Defense Department.

Principal aim of the recommendations, according to Symington, was to streamline the Defense Department to meet the needs of the nuclear space age by eliminating "the arbitrary and ridiculous division between land, sea and air."

THE BASIC recommendations submitted to Kennedy:

- Elimination of the departmental structure of the Army, Navy and Air Force, although retaining the three services as separate military divisions. This would abolish the three civilian service secretaries, their undersecretaries and assistant secretaries.
- Replacing the Joint Chiefs of Staff with a joint staff, the chairman of which would report directly to the secretary of defense who would then report to the president.

—THE CIVILIAN command of the defense department would consist of a secretary, a deputy secretary, an undersecretary for administration and an undersecretary for weapons systems.

- Establishment of three basic unified military commands:
- 1. Strategic. The offensive command to react in case of general war and/or nuclear attack.
- 2. Tactical. To react in case of attack in a limited war.
- 3. Defense. Responsible for the defense of the United States.

Symington said in two previous wars, this country had 18 months to prepare; "In the next war, we'll be lucky to have 18 minutes."

KENNEDY SUNDAY night initiated a program which he promised during the election campaign to help the nation's chronic depressed areas. He set up a 10-member committee under Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., to start at once on a federal plan to spur economic growth and stimulate investment in new industry in areas of chronic unemployment.

After meeting Symington in the late morning, Kennedy planned to fly back to Washington this afternoon, leaving here about 1:30 p.m. (e.s.t.). He deferred announcement of additional cabinet appointments until after his meeting Tuesday morning at the White House with President Eisenhower.

The next cabinet appointment, Kennedy's third, will be announced Wednesday in New York where the President-elect will spend the day in meetings with a number of people, including Dag Hammarskjöld, secretary-general of the United Nations.

CONGO CHAOS THREATENED

OFFICIALS OF THE Norman Larson Company and the Hiller Aircraft Company yesterday flew Frank Bogert, Francis Crocker and newsmen up to the site of the proposed Palm Springs Tramway. Leaving the floor of the desert in a Hiller D4 helicopter, they were deposited at Hidden Lake at an altitude of 8,010 feet, about one mile from the terminus of the future aerial Tramway. Both still and motion pictures were taken at the site, where Desert area residents and visitors may in the future be playing in the snow. Pictured above, before takeoff, Earl Coffman, Frank Bogert, Francis Crocker

Violence, Anarchy Evident

LEOPOLDVILLE, T h e Congo (UPI) — An upsurge of violence and anarchy threatened today to plunge the Congo back into the chaos that engulfed it shortly after it gained independence five months ago.

United Nations troops were trying to end a bloody battle between Congolese soldiers and civilian supporters of Patrice Lumumba in Kikwit, 250 miles southeast of Leopoldville. Reports reaching here said two days of fighting had taken 13 lives.

IN STANLEYVILLE, to the north, leftist Bernard Salumu emerged as a new local dictator and announced the big Eastern Province was "seceding." He sealed off the frontiers of the province and held 1,000 terrorized Europeans as virtual hostages.

In Katanga Province, Baluba warriors were reported massing for an attack on the northern provincial town of Kabalo as the time limit ran out on their ultimatum for all Europeans and Katangese troops to get out.

THE ACTIONS in Kikwit and Stanleyville were triggered by the arrest of Lumumba by the troops of Col. Joseph Mobutu, the army strongman who seized power in Leopoldville Sept. 14.

The deposed premier, pummeled and kicked by his exultant captors, was hustled off to the army barracks at Thysville over the weekend to await trial on charges that probably will amount close to treason.

One Injured In Accident At Indio Today

INDIO — John Lupe Castro, 18, of Coachella, was taken to Casita Hospital this morning with under-termined injuries when the truck he was driving apparently went out of control and rolled over at 10:10 a.m., today, near Avenue 56 on Highway 99, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Four persons were injured in three separate accidents Saturday, the California Highway Patrol also reported, but only one was hospitalized.

Ray G. Demaree, Jr., 37, Phoenix, was taken to Casita Hospital at 11:40 p.m., Saturday, after his car went out of control on Highway 99 four miles west of Monroe Street, and struck nine concrete posts in the center divider.

Gorham Rites To Be Held Here Tuesday

Funeral services for Ryland M. "Pop" Gorham, 77, Palm Springs postmaster from 1933 to 1953, will be held at 11 a.m., Tuesday, in the Wiefels and Son chapel, with Dr. James H. Blackstone, Jr., pastor of the Community Church here, officiating.

A native of Maysville, Ga., Gorham had lived in Palm Springs 36 years and California 42 years. Co-founder with E. T. Fulford of Palm Springs Builders Supply Company in 1924, he was named postmaster here by President F. D. Roosevelt.

Gorham is survived by his son, Jack M. Gorham, Palm Springs; a sister, Mrs. Rosa Detwyler, Maysville, and one grandchild.

Interment will be in the Wood Murray Memorial Cemetery.

Ex-IBC Head Testifies Today

WASHINGTON — UPI — Senate boxing investigators were told today that the old International Boxing Club learned "to live in peace" with underworld elements so they wouldn't cause trouble in staging professional fights.

The admission came from Truman K. Gibson Jr., former president of the International Boxing Clubs of New York and Illinois. Gibson balked at describing the policy as outright cooperation, saying IBC just recognized "the facts of life."

NEW SNOW, WIND WARNINGS ISSUED

By United Press International — Cold weather mustered behind three low pressure areas in the nation's central plains today threatening a new onslaught of icy temperatures and wind-driven snows.

Blizzard warnings were in effect early today from central Nebraska through the Dakotas and into western Minnesota. The Weather Bureau warned that cold Canadian air poised to push southward into the area could bring six-inch snows and winds from 30 to 60 m.p.h.

A SECOND STORM center dumped soggy snow on Colorado, Utah, Wyoming and parts of Montana as snow plows fought to keep mountain roads open. Snow depths ranged from four to eight inches, with 40 m.p.h. winds in some areas causing heavy drifting.

A third low pressure area, advancing before cool Pacific Coast air, cut the nation in half early today touching off showers from the Dakotas southward through Illinois and the Mississippi Valley into Texas.

THE INTENSE LOW in the central plains was expected to shift slightly eastward today, bringing heavy snow and blizzard conditions to upper Mississippi Valley and parts of the plains.

The arctic air mass near the nation's northern border should shift southward today, the Weather Bureau said, dropping temperatures sharply in the northern plains.

Showers were expected to continue falling from the upper lakes southward through Indiana, the central and lower Mississippi Valley and into eastern Texas.

Ike to Have Top Advisers Ready

WASHINGTON — UPI — President Eisenhower has directed his top military, diplomatic and fiscal advisers to stand by to brief President-elect John F. Kennedy Tuesday if Kennedy wishes to see them, the White House said today.

'Reach for Blonde Instead of Cigaret'

LONDON — UPI — Middle-aged men tempted to reach for a cigarette to ease the worries of everyday life were advised today to reach instead for a blonde, or a brunette.

The suggestion came from a British medical expert who offered his "don't smoke — flirt" theory in an article in the medical magazine, The Practitioner.

In the article, Dr. MacKinnon took the view that if middle-aged men must have a "minor vice" they should try to find a healthier one than smoking — for example, a light romance.

"I wouldn't suggest flirtation as an alternative to smoking for younger men," he said. "That could be dangerous."

YOUTH, HE WENT ON, could take up chess, or drink beer or engage in a series of "platonic" friendships, preferably several at the same time.

At his home, Dr. MacKinnon — who is a nonsmoker — amplified his somewhat original ideas. "People look upon smoking as a tranquilizer," he said. "For the man over 40 who shouldn't smoke for health reasons I think flirting is a suitable alternative."

"Smoking is said to be a sign of emotional immaturity. This feeling of uncertainty could be counteracted by a pleasant emotional relationship like a flirtation."

"A man loves his wife more for having other women friends."

Mother's March Set by Junior Women Dec. 6-7

Mother's March for the Muscular Dystrophy Association fund raising drive sponsored by the Palm Springs Junior Woman's Club will take place on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, from 7 to 10.

The hoped for goal to be reached in the Palm Springs area is $1,200, according to MDQ Executive Secretary John Lelicoff, who will be on hand both evenings to help the Juniors.

Mrs. John Neil, chairman of the drive, said the two evenings will be necessary in order for the 28 Juniors to cover the greater Palm Springs area. Any service club members wishing to help in this cause may contact her at Fairview 4-2297.

Villagers are asked to help by leaving their porch lights on these two evenings. Any homes that are missed by the Juniors are urged to contribute to the MDA fund by means of the canisters the Palm Springs Fire Department has distributed to local businesses.

The monies collected from this drive will be used for therapy and research in the Riverside County area.

REALTY BOARD TO INSTALL TUESDAY

Prominent Palm Springs realtor Mrs. Theresa Press will be installed as president of the Palm Springs Real Estate Board succeeding incumbent Herb Lakey in ceremonies Tuesday evening at the Tennis Club, with National Association of Real Estate Boards vice president Charles H. Brown, Pasadena, officiating.

Installed with Mrs. Press will be first vice president John Seamans, second vice president Mildred Jackson, plus directors and California Real Estate Association representatives.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS here will be broker members Sally Franks and Isabelle Cameron, sales member Roy Randolph, retiring president Herb Lakey, retiring vice president Muriel Fulton, and Lew Levy.

CREA directors are Mrs. Press, Seamans and Randolph. Honorary CREA directors at large will be Lakey and D. D. Watson, both past presidents of the CREA, and John Munholland, honorary CREA president.

A MEMBER OF THE PSREB board of directors for six years, Mrs. Press served as president of the board succeeding Terry Ray in 1957. She has been a state director for the past two years, and will continue to serve the coming year.

Mrs. Press visited Hawaii during her previous term as president, as an Ambassador of Good Will named by the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce. With greetings from then-mayor Florian Boyd and the Chamber, Mrs. Press met Honolulu realty officials, the city's mayor and governor of the territory.

DURING HER service with the PSREB, Mrs. Press served on all committees of the board, with immediate past chairmanship of the Civics and Community Affairs committee. She is a member of the Multiple Listing Service.

James G. Pack, incumbent district 28 CREA vice president, and president-elect of the Desert Hot Springs realtors, will be a guest of honor. He will make some complimentary presentations. Roy St. Leon, retiring Palm Desert board president who will be installed Jan. 16 as new district 28 CREA vice president, is scheduled to attend as a guest of honor. Mesdames Pack and St. Leon will accompany their husbands.

BLOCKADE ABANDONED

17 White Children Attend Classes

NEW ORLEANS — UPI — Seventeen white children went to classes in an integrated school today when angry housewives abandoned their blockade and the U.S. government stepped into the middle of the integration crisis.

The smallest crowd of hecklers since integration began stood in front of William Frantz Elementary School today and made little effort to stop the children from entering.

BUT AT MCDONOUGH 19, the city's other integrated grade school, three Negro girls were all alone for the seventh straight day of classes.

A three-judge federal court, at the request of the U.S. Justice Department, issued a temporary restraining order against a law passed by the state legislature setting up a new schoolboard. The board would have been empowered only to borrow money, and the law would have authorized the legislature to run the New Orleans schools.

IT WAS THE first time the federal government has taken direct action in the school crisis. The only earlier action was to obtain a restraining order to keep federal marshals from getting arrested by state officials.

The attorney general's office entered another suit as a "friend of the court," and asked for permanent injunctions barring state officials from interfering with integration. Such injunctions are now temporary, but could remain in effect for a year.

It was the highest attendance at Frantz today since Nov. 16, the third day of integration, when 19 white children attended. It was a nearly double the attendance last Friday.

Understand Founder Set To Talk Here

Dr. Daniel W. Fry
Sets Rancho Mirage
Lecture on Friday

Dr. Daniel W. Fry, founder of Understanding, Inc., and president of the international organization, will lecture to Palm Springs Unit No. 19, at 8 p.m., Friday. The meeting will be held at the Haven of Healing, Highway 111, in Rancho Mirage.

DR. FRY, MISSILE firm executive, founded Understanding in 1955 at El Monte. He credits much of the philosophy behind to a contract he states he experienced with an extra - terrestrial being while he was employed at White Sands Proving Ground, New Mexico, in 1950.

This now controversial claim is described in one of Dr. Fry's books, "The White Sands Incident," in which the engineer, who was recently awarded an honorary Ph.D. by an English college, reported he was flown from White Sands to New York and back again, all in a 30-minute period.

THE EXPERIENCE, one of many contacts with space being reported both in recent years and throughout all recorded history, led Dr. Fry to found "units of Understanding."

The purpose is of "bringing about a greater degree of understanding among the people of the earth and making available to them more of the higher understanding of those beings who are not of this earth."

Russian Space

Flub Inspires

U. S. Evaluation

MOSCOW — The fiery end of Russia's latest space ship in the upper atmosphere has inspired a new Western look at the whole Soviet "man in space" program.

Although an official announcement said the satellite provided "new medical data . . . for manned space flight in the near future" during its brief life, observers here recalled earlier declarations that Russia could not launch a man into space until it could guarantee his safe return.

After the reported recovery in August of a space capsule carrying various forms of life, Russian scientists said a man could easily have ridden the space vehicle to a safe landing.

No such claim was expected regarding the latest Soviet "Arknik."

Cohen Facing Trial April 3

LOS ANGELES — Ex-convict Mickey Cohen faces trial April 3, 1961, on income tax evasion charges.

U. S. District Judge George S. Boldt Friday fixed the trial date for the pudgy former gambler. Cohen was arrested Sept. 16 and is free on $100,000 bail.

Cohen said that Internal Revenue Service agents "took everything," including his plumber's telephone number when they searched the apartment and took him into custody.

OUT OF RETIREMENT to work in Frances Stevens school here because he "couldn't sit around doing nothing" is T. H. Waters, supervisor with Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, Los Angeles, who retired recently after 37 years service with the firm. Waters, who likes to work around children because they make him feel closer to his grandchildren, discusses the youngsters academic growth with Paul Summit, school district staff coordinator of special services. (Desert Sun Photo)

TAKES SCHOOL JOB

Retirement Bores Former Foreman

T. H. Waters has joined the Palm Springs Unified School District as a custodian, because retirement just wasn't for him. Waters, 37 - year - old veteran with Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, Los Angeles, where he served as instructor, inspector, supervisor in tire production and foreman in the fuel cell department, moved to the Palm Springs area with his wife because "it is the ideal spot."

He explained that absence of smog, nearness of swimming and golfing made the desert area ideal for retirement. But he couldn't retire.

"I have found I just couldn't sit down and do nothing," Waters explained. He took a job as Frances Stevens school custodian because he likes to be around children. "I have two grandchildren, and being around kids makes me feel closer to them," Waters said. He beamed that "I am pleased to have this position with the school."

The unretired Waters and his wife make their home in a trailer park here.

Brown's Water Plan Nearing Completion

SACRAMENTO — Gov. Edmund G. Brown's $1.75 billion water program, approved by voters in the Nov. 8 general election, today was only one step away from having enough water to flow through the gigantic system of dams and canals.

The California Water Commission Friday assigned eight state water filings along the Feather River to the state department of water resources.

The commission holds the water rights in a "trust" for water users to get when they plan projects in the state. The only step now remaining is approval of the state water rights board expected as a matter of form but possibly with minor modifications.

The water agency was granted use of a total of 4,075,000 acre-feet of water for use at Oroville Dam and power plant, Thermalito diversion dam and afterbay, the Delta water project, the North and South Bay Aqueducts, San Luis reservoir and the San Joaquin-Southern California aqueduct system.

Change of Tempo

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — A new idea in motion picture music will be presented in Allied Artists' "The Plunderers."

The music has been written by composer-conductor Leonard Roseman. The picture is based on four juvenile delinquents on horseback. Although the story takes place in post-Civil War Texas, the music has a modern touch instead of the traditional Western style.

16 Complete ARC First Aid Course Here

New Class Starts,
Still Has Room
For More Students

Sixteen local persons completed American Red Cross - sponsored first aid courses in Palm Springs last week.

Graduating in the standard course on Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Summers, Frank Falk, Robert Chapman, R. M. Dirksen, Edward Hamm, Evelyn Moorman, A. Haas, George Be- ment, V. A. Guymon, Paul Cut- cliffe, William Edwards, Mrs. Alice Kessel, Dorothy Hugo, Juin Vail, Lydia Kison, and Mrs. C. E. M. Bates.

THE CLASS WAS instructed by Charles LaFranz and Earl "Whit- ey" Keeler.

John Kraft, Riverside County director of the Red Cross was on hand to present a special movie - a Canadian Air Force training film on first aid. This was fol- lowed by the showing of a cartoon film starring Donald Duck - "How to Have an Accident at Home."

GUESTS AT THE showing of the two films were members of a new class which will start im- mediately. They were Mrs. Hazel Beebe, Mrs. Thurman Arnold, Mrs. George Wheeler, Mrs. Don Crab- tree, Mrs. William Aiken, and Mrs. Henry Echols.

The Red Cross instructors Ellen Bichavani and Eloise Kane were also present.

Juin Vail has announced that any organization which wishes to borrow any training films may do so by calling the Red Cross Of- fice at FAirview 4-4818.

ALMANAC

Today is Monday, Dec. 5, the 340th day of the year with 26 more in 1960.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The morning stars are Mercury and Mars.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1776, Phi Beta Kappa . . . the first scholastic fraternity in America . . . was organized.

In 1782, Martin Van Buren was born. He was the first U. S. Presi- dent to be born a citizen.

In 1948, President Polk con- firmed the discovery of gold in California, and the gold rush of '48 and '49 became inevitable.

In 1933, prohibition came to an end with Utah's ratification of the 21st Amendment. This repealed the 18th or prohibition, amend- ment.

In 1934, 66 persons were ex- ecuted in Russia as a follow-up to "purge" trials. All of them were charged with "plotting" against the Stalin regime.

Thought for today: The Ameri- can poet . . . Ralph Waldo Em- erson said . . . "Nothing can bring you peace but yourself."

The largest military reservation within a city's limits in the U.S. is the Presidio of San Francisco. It was first selected as military headquarters for the soldiers of Charles III of Spain in 1776 and covers 1,540 acres.

THOUSAND PALMS

'Chit-Chat' Club Holds Meet

By ELIZABETH NELSON

The November meeting of the "Chit Chat Club" of Thousand Palms, was held at the Desert Moon Guest Ranch, with Mrs. Chester Williams as hostess. She was assisted by her young daughter, Phyllis, who greeted the mem- bers and guests at the door by giving each one a Hawaiian lei.

Further carrying out the Hawai- an motif of the evening, each in attendance came attired in mu- mus. As the main feature of the program, the ladies were taught to dance the hula by Miss Helen Hyde, to strains of the Hawaiian music of "Little Brown Girl" and "Hukilau." Hawaiian music also set a fitting background for re- freshments - pineapple tidbits, co- conut cookies, hot chocolate. Haw- iian punch—which were served "luau" style to the ladies seated on the floor.

In attendance were Mesdames Richard Aderhold, Richard Band- ick, Dan Blythe, Dan Contreras, Wayne Fitch, Richard Hedglin, Richard Jackson and Leo Miller, all members. Miss Anita Ross was a guest for the evening. Miss Helen Hyde, owner-operator of the Des- ert Moon Ranch, and her sister, Miss Grace Hyde, assisted hostesses Mrs. and Little Miss Williams.

Organized approximately a year ago for the young married women of the Thousand Palms area, the club has as its founders and spon- sors (who remain in the back- ground), Mesdames Dan Claassen and Henry M. Lennie. Their first officers were Mrs. Richard Jack- son, president; Mrs. Chester Wil- liams, secretary and Mrs. Dan Blythe, treasurer; however, this year they report that they are planning to have no formal orga- nization as far as officers are con- cerned.

Plans for this 1960-61 season call for meetings of the club to be held each third Monday, beginning with the next meeting scheduled to be held on Dec. 12, which is to be a formal Christmas party.

Houseguests of Mrs. Elva F. Woodside last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Mahre of Los Angeles. Mr. Mahre is in the su- perintendent's office of Southern Pacific Railway Company there and was formerly head of the department supervising telegra- phers and clerks of the company in this area at the time Mrs. Woodside was employed in that capacity at the Niland section for the several years before her re- tirement.

Mrs. Warren W. Mills enjoyed a two-day visit in her home here of her grandson and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Houser and sons, Jack, Jr., Robert and Roger, of Hayward. The Housers returned to their Bay area home via Ban- ning, where they visited Mr. Houser's mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Griffin, and sister, Miss Joan Houser, who are fre- quent visitors to the Mills' home.

Mrs. Mills had returned earlier in the season from having spent the summer months in the Lodi area with two daughters and their families who reside there. Lodi is also the former home of many years, and their first hometown in California, of Mrs. Mills and the late Mr. Mills, the latter whom passed away last spring just short of the Mills' 55th wedding anni- versary. Mrs. Mills is dividing her time, at the present, this season, between her Thousand Palms home and the home of her daughter and family, the Arthur Griffins, in Banning.

A happy memory now of Mrs. Hazel E. Pries for 1960 was the Recent weekend houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Lau were their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kramer, Ray and Karen, of La Puente. While here the Kramers purchased a new home in the "Dream Homes" subdivision of Palm Springs into which they will move upon the completion of the new Market Basket Market now under construction in Palm Springs. Employed in the Altadena store We cannot afford to establish a of this company, Mr. Kramer is to be transferred to the Palm Springs store upon its opening.

Houseguests last weekend of the Laus were their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Cov- ington and sons, Cary, Kevin, and Scott, of La Habra. The Covingtons attended the Thousand Palms Chamber of Commerce-sponsored dinner and rummage sale held at the Desert Moon Ranch on that Saturday evening as the guests of their host and hostess, Mrs. Lau was co-chairman of the din- ner committee for this fund rais- ing affair for the Chamber's latest big project—the construction of a Community Hall on the site donated to the Thousand Palms area for that purpose.

Other recently new residents of Thousand Palms are Mr. and Mrs. Don Rogers and their children, Shirley, 11, and Jimmy, now 16 months old. The Rogers are rent- ing the Orwig house on Calle Jessica, and returned here from Shenandoah, Iowa, their home state after having lived in Thou- sand Palms area (on nearby Ivey Quarter-Horse Ranch) for eight months three years ago. At that time, as now, Mr. Rogers was employed on the Ivey Ranch. The Rogers first came this year in May on a vacation, bringing with them Terry Hunt, teen-age brother of Mesdames Chester Williams and Dan Blythe for his summer visit. Mr. Rogers' sister, Mrs. Harry Hunt, of Iowa, is a sister-in-law of Mesdames Williams and Blythe. Upon returning to Shenandoah, the Rogers decided to return to Thou- sand Palms to make their home. Shirley is in the sixth grade of the Agua Caliente School, now quartered at Cielo Vista in Palm Springs.

Watch For Yule Thieves, Warns Kettmann

By FRED C. WEIGEL

Christmas time is a "ripe plum" of opportunity or would - be pickpockets, shoplifters, auto thieves and forgery experts -and if Palm Springs residents don't follow the advice of the Palm Springs Police Department, they may become victims of thieving strangers.

Chief of Police August G. Kett- mann said today that his depart- ment has initiated a special de- tail which would put maximum pro- tection on the local streets and in local shopping districts to pro- tect the local residents and vis- itors. Plainclothesmen are already, he said, to combat potential thieves who have helped raise the crime rate 17 per cent on the state- wide level.

CHIEF KETTMANN added that Villagers should be "doubly alert to the situation because of the increasing number of jobless in the state."

To aid the local buyer and re- tailer in the community, the de- partment has suggested these se- curity measures for your protec- tion:

— Don't carry purses with long strap handles and easy snap open- ings. This is duck soup for the light - fingered artist who can pick you penniless while you're standing at a crowded store coun- ter. And don't leave your pocket- book gaping wide open.

— DON'T THROW YOUR Christ- mas packages in the car and then leave windows open and doors un- locked. Strolling thieves hope you will. Lock your packages in the car trunk.

"This not only keeps them out of sight, but makes the would-be thief a pigeon for the hard-eyed plainclothes cops who keep watch," Kettmann said.

— Watch your pocketbooks and packages, particularly in compact crowds at bus stops and eleva- tors. These are favorite haunts of the larcenous and facile fingered.

— Make sure your charge plates and credit cards are returned di- rectly to you.

The dish chicken tetrazzini was created in honor of world famous opera singer Luisa Tetrazzini, who used to sing Christmas carols at a local restaurant.

— And if any carelessness does lead to theft, report it at once to the proper authorities.

"Keep track at all times of your money and valuables, because it is practically impossible to steal from the person who is on the alert to protect what he values," cautioned the chief.

ASIDE FROM THE Christmas shopping season bringing out the experienced thieves who wait all year for the "ripe plum" of Christmas activities, the season brings out a swarm of amateur shoplifters, mostly women and chil- dren, who when caught "burst into tears and proclaim that this is their first offense." "And it usually is," said Det. Lt. Robert White, "last year we arrested many persons, none of whom had prior records of any kind."

Goals for Americans

PART I GOALS AT HOME

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Because of the importance of the report of the President's Commission on National Goals, The Desert Sun is carrying it in its entirety. This is another in the series.)

1. THE INDIVIDUAL

The status of the individual must remain our primary concern. All our institutions—political, social and economic—must further enhance the dignity of the citizen, promote the maximum development of his capabilities, stimulate their responsible exercise, and widen the range and effectiveness of opportunities for individual choice.

From this concern springs our purpose to achieve equal treatment of men and women, to enlarge their incentives and to expand their opportunities for self-development and self-expression. From it comes our insistence on widely distributed political and economic power, on the greatest range of free choice in our economy, and on the fair and democratic exercise of public and private power. It underlies the value we put on education. It guides the pursuit of science. It is the source of our interest in the health and welfare of every citizen.

The great ideas that have moved the world have sprung from unfettered human minds. The spirit of liberty, in which they thrive, makes one man hesitate to impose his will on another. It relies on the conviction that the truth will emerge from free inquiry and exchange of views.

The notion that ideas and individuals must be rejected merely because they are controversial denies the essence of our tradition. Schools and institutions of higher education, and the trustees, board members and legislators responsible for them, have a particular responsibility to ensure freedom of expression by students, faculty and administrators alike. We must bring our young men and women to believe in the individual and to act upon that belief. There are subtle and powerful pressures toward conformity in the economic, social, and political world. They must be resisted so that differences of taste and opinion will remain a constructive force in improving our society.

Unity of purpose must never be confused with unanimity of opinion. Vigorous controversy and the acceptance of dissent as a positive value will renew our strength and demonstrate to the world our calm confidence that truth and reason prevail in a free society.

2. EQUALITY

Vestiges of religious prejudice, handicaps to women, and, most important, discrimination on the basis of race must be recognized as morally wrong, economically wasteful, and in many respects dangerous. In this decade we must sharply lower these last stubborn barriers.

Progress toward realizing these ideals in practice has been extraordinary. We have ever more closely approached a classless society; there has been a revolution in the status of women; education is more nearly available to all; most citizens have opportunities which a century ago were dreamed of by only a handful.

Respect for the individual means respect for every individual. Every man and woman must have equal rights before the law, and equal opportunity to vote and hold office, to be educated, to get a job and to be promoted when qualified, to buy a home, to participate fully in community affairs. These goals, which are at the core of our system, must be achieved by action at all levels.

Primary responsibility rests with individuals. Habits of prejudice and fear of social and economic pressure restrict employment opportunities and housing choices, cause exclusion from eating places, hotels, and recreation facilities, and inhibit the free action of public officers. No American should remain within the grip of these habits and fears.

The right to vote is basic. Private pressures and discriminatory administration of registration laws must not continue to obstruct it. Predominant state control of voting qualifications is traditional, but if necessary the basic democratic right to vote must take precedence.

One role of government is to stimulate changes of attitude. Additional municipal, state, and federal legislation is essential. The federal government should enforce the principle that federal funds shall not be disbursed to employers who discriminate on the basis of race. Similar policies should progressively be applied to federal grants for universities, hospitals, and airports, and to federal housing programs.

By 1970 discrimination in higher education should be entirely overcome. Every state must make progress in good faith toward desegregation of publicly supported schools.

3. DEMOCRATIC PROCESS

The degree of effective liberty available to its people should be the ultimate test for any nation. Democracy is the only means so far devised by which a nation can meet this test. To preserve and perfect the democratic process in the United States is therefore a primary goal in this as in every decade.

The democratic process functions only when the individual accepts his full responsibility as a citizen by forming considered opinions on public policy and by active participation in the choice of public representatives.

Democracy gives reality to our striving for equality. It is the expression of individual self-respect; it clears the way for individual initiative, exercise of responsibility, and use of varied talents. It is basic to the peaceful adjustment of differences of opinion. It must not be curtailed out of impatience to find quick solutions.

The institutions of the federal government require improvement but not drastic change. The conduct of the office of the President and the presence of high-quality people in key executive departments remain principal sources of effective policy-making and administrative performance.

Changing times require that the Congress reassess its procedures. Multiple hearings upon the same issue by several communities put an undue burden upon administrative officers and legislators. Congress could be more effective by focusing its attention on the determination by broad policies. Legislation has become unduly detailed. Congressional committees and their staffs too often encroach upon the administrative function. In the interests of efficiency and economy, Congress might well experiment with an occasional bill authorizing the President to eliminate or reduce specific items, subject to reversal by concurrent resolution.

Improvement of the democratic process requires a constantly better-informed public. Mass circulation periodicals have opportunities beyond their current performance. Television, although it has improved, can do better still in communicating serious ideas. In far too many communities newspapers are inadequate in their coverage of significant public affairs. The problem of interesting and informing mass audiences, which most media must serve, is a constant challenge. The American people remain among the best informed in the world, but their sources of information must steadily be enriched to come with ever more complex problems.

Private interest groups exemplify the rights of assembly and petition. Thus, the functioning of pressure groups of many kinds has become a part of our democratic process. Special interest groups must operate legitimately. The program of any particular group can be opposed most effectively by the formation of a counter group. There is a need for more which represent broader interests such as consumers and taxpayers.

The vastly increased demands upon the federal government require at the higher levels more public servants equal in competence and imagination to those in private business and the professions. This involves a drastic increase in their compensation. The President should be given unequivocal authority and responsibility to develop a true senior civil service. The executive branch must also place greater emphasis on the recruiting, training, and stimulation of career employees.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — David E. Bell, named to the post of budget director Friday by President-elect John F. Kennedy, proved almost immediately that he was able to talk in big figures.

A photographer asked Bell to "say something, say anything — like 'one, two, three, four.'"

"Forty-five billion," Bell responded.

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Today I am told I am doing some good Just like a newspaper Writer should

My apologies to the TV cigarette commercial. But you can't call that a thinking man's verse.

WHAT HAPPENED was this. Last Wednesday, at the request of four small grandsons and some other youngsters whose voices haven't begun to change, I reprinted again a verse about youngsters and Christmas gifts—that they were not so interested in clothes but wanted toys, something they could play with, take apart or just plain smash.

That brought in two verbal comments quick.

THURSDAY MORNING a woman, well known in the Village, stopped me.

"You apparently don't know a thing about teen-age girls, do you?"

Not knowing that was coming, I stuttered a "No."

"Well, last night you advocated giving toys instead of clothes to youngsters as Christmas presents. All my teen-age daughters want are fancy dresses, sweaters, blouses, and so on. They don't want toys."

WELL, MA'AM, I'm sorry. I printed that thing just in the interest of little boys. You know, around twelve or ten and under.

They are not interested in clothes until they reach the age where they begin to look at girls. Girls to them are something to be scorned unless they can beat the whey out of them in a fair fight.

I WAS THINKING of the Little Monsters whose only thought of clothes is that the law requires them.

So the other communication which also came Thursday, pleased me. Some kid is going to be grateful for that bit of verse.

Another woman button - holed me.

"You know, you've cost me money. I just bought a beautiful shirt for my nephew when I read that piece about clothes and toys. So I thought I'll just take that shirt back and buy a toy."

BUT YOU MERCHANTS need not worry. She didn't take that shirt back.

"After thinking it over, I decided to give him that shirt anyway and buy him some clever toy, too," she said.

So you see, I did some good in bolstering the economy of Palm Springs.

Two guys punched a cash register — the shirt salesman and the purveyor of the toy.

AND WHEN I got home this weekend, Mrs. G pulled me to one side.

"Look what I have for the boys for Christmas," she said. Shirts, socks, slacks, everything to wear.

Not a toy in the lot for me to try out.

Boy, they're going to think I'm a lout.

STAN DELAPLANE:

Must Be the Weather

Have you noticed the number of marriages lately? It must be something about the weather—the weather has been wonderful around here this year.

Anyway, it seems to me there have been more marriages than usual: Lana Turner, Sammy Davis Jr., Debbie Reynolds, Bobby Darin.

Have been studying the poets on this loving subject.

I FIND THEY speak highly of love — "Love is flowerlike," "is heaven," "is like a dizziness." And so on.

But they bum-rap marriage in a fearful way:

Lo! Here's the bride and there's the tree.

"Take which of these best liketh thee?"

"The bargain's bad on either part —

"But, hangman, come — drive on the cart."

DESPITE THE BARDS, people go right on getting married. However, this may soon be unnecessary. And I quote the British Medical Association:

"Biologically speaking, there is no real need for such a large number of males in the population as we have today."

THE ARTICLE pointed out that bee hives have only a few males. (They sit around the hive doing nothing. What a life!)

Green flies and aphids have no males around.

And, naturally, if human beings have no men around, there are going to be no weddings. Right? Right!

THE ASSOCIATION looks forward to a cool future of superwomen "in which man will be unnecessary."

This is a cool way of looking at it. But the medics are looking at it only with a biological eye.

It is my scientific contention that man will not be outmoded.

Like the horse and the appendix and the milk bottle.

WHO WILL OPEN the cans for Superwoman of the Future? I have seen a few Superwomen of the present. And believe me, if it were not for the gallantry of man — modesty prevents me going further with this. But if it were not for pure chivalry, these chicks would starve. Or stab themselves to death.

I WOULD LIKE to see the wreckage that will be called "home" when the Superchicks take over. Without a man with a blooming mile.

Sardine cans with the key twisted off to one side.

SOUP CANS WITH the top cut spirally toward the center.

Coffee cans with the edge wound up in a ribbon you couldn't unwind with a blowtorch.

That will be a pretty day, my pretty one.

SUPERWOMAN (without man) will lead a glum life. It is well-known that today's ladies have troubles. But they have someone to blame for it.

It is a fact known to every lady today that man spends very little time at his place of business.

HE SPENDS MOST of the day in fancy saloons. Lunching with entertaining friends (and dazzling career females). He spends it getting drunk, drunk, drunk! That's what he does, the beast.

While the lady sat at home, blast it. Fixing herself a cold turkey sandwich. AND NEVER going ANYWHERE!

GEORGE! IS THAT lipstick on your collar? Now don't tell me it's catsup.

This great release will be denied the Superchick.

Because there will be no collars, my dear. And no one to wear them.

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a minister who would direct a play and take a leading part in this play in which he portrayed a drunk who cursed and took the name of our Lord in vain?

The play was "The Caine Mutiny" and was open to the public to raise funds for the Church. The cursing this minister did in this play was fierce! If he hadn't been our clergyman I wouldn't have minded so much. How can he justify breaking the Third Commandment? I'd like your views and also those of other clergymen, please.

WITHHOLD MY NAME

DEAR WITHHOLD: Your clergyman should have realized that first and foremost he is a minister — not an actor. If he wanted to act in a play, he should have selected one in which his role would have been in keeping with the dignity of his office. Ministers, too, are human, and sometimes err.

DEAR ABBY: How do you get rid of a boyfriend you don't care for?

HELEN

DEAR HELEN: Introduce him to a girl you don't care for.

DEAR ABBY: Recently my mother-in-law, who has been a widow for six years, became "engaged." She is in her late forties and he is in his middle fifties.

He gave her an "engagement ring," of all things. I have always been under the impression that it was poor taste for a woman who has been married before (and owns one engagement ring) to accept another. Please enlighten me and others who have this question in mind.

DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: There is no limit to the number of engagement rings a woman may accept. It is simply the "token" that accompanies a promise to wed. If a woman accepts a proposal of marriage, she may accept the token that goes with it.

DEAR ABBY: I just found out that a woman comes to this town almost every weekend to see my husband. She is married and has children. I could tell her husband but I hate to do that to innocent children. Please put this in the paper for my husband to see. He never misses your column. I want him to know I am on to them. If they don't stop seeing each other I will be forced to tell her husband. I can't stand it any more.

SURPRISE! SURPRISE!

MIDLAND, Tex. (U) — Police reported someone stole several dozen diapers from the Tidy-Diaper Service. All of them were dirty.

FOR CHILDREN ONLY

HULL, England (U) — Children can dial 95 in the city-owned telephone service beginning Monday and hear a 3½ minute bedtime story each night between 5:30 and 8:30 p.m.

POLITICAL ADVICE

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. (U) — New Jersey Secretary of State Edward J. Patten told a group of newly-elected freeholders that to be a politician "you have to have a stomach like a nanny goat, you have to like people, and you can't have a glass jaw."

"If you can't stand being called names, don't even get sworn in," Patten said.

READY COOKED BREAKFAST

CINCINNATI, Ohio (U) — Harry Muthert went to the refrigerator to prepare his breakfast and found it already cooked to a crisp.

A short circuit had caused a fire in the unit, doing $150 damages. Muthert went out for breakfast.

NICE TO CONTEMPLATE

DENTON, Tex. (U) — A North Texas State College English class on folklore and what this country once was like was asked by Dr. George Hendricks, "Can you imagine 1,000 wolves running across this campus?"

"I most certainly can," replied one pretty coed. "Wouldn't it be wonderful?"

ON THE CARPET

NEW YORK (U) — Motorcycle Patrolman Charles W. Stolz spent 4½ hours waiting and answering questions by the City Investigations Department (CID) on why he issued a summons to a CID car, it was disclosed.

Fred Ingram, manager of the local Bank of America, has been named president of the Chamber of Commerce. Other new officers are John Wood, first vice president; Stanley Rosin, second vice president, and Keith Herbert, retiring president, secretary-treasurer.

City Council this week put its seal of approval on the Christmas tree custom, as it decided to encourage their sale throughout the city. Stores which stock trees will be able to use a reasonable amount of sidewalk in front of the establishment to display the conifers.

DECEMBER 5, 1940

Through the enterprise of a trio of Palm Springs men, this village may have the honor of entertaining the Nebraska gridiron team, Rose Bowl contenders, during their pre-game training period. At least negotiations have been entered into and the invitation extended, it was disclosed today. The idea is the brain child of Dick Richard, prominent local resident, who has had his own top professional team in the Middle West for many years. Knowing Link Lyman, assistant coach at Nebraska, he suggested the idea of a Palm Springs stopover to Lyman when the latter recently visited the West Coast. Joining in subsequent invitations have been Earl Gibbs, president of the Palm Springs Field Club, and Mayor Phil Boyd.

DECEMBER 5, 1930

Frank V. Shannon has been elected president of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce. In a statement of aims, he said that a major effort will be made to promote patronizing of local merchants.

Raymond Cree was a business visitor to Riverside and San Bernardino Tuesday.

San Marino Group Here for Weekend

San Marino was well represented at The Monkey Tree on East Racquet Club Road this past week. Vacationers included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greg, Mr. and Mrs. William Lollar, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Speedy Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fyke, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Randolph Richards, Mrs. Eleanor Hunt (she is the daughter of the late Victor Rossetti, world famed banker), Bud Rusch, all of San Marino. While here they visited several of the local nightspots with their hosts the Lorin Rowleys. The John T. Lohmans of Newport Beach are flying here in their own plane to spend a few days and the Edward Pielemeiers (he is chairman of the Board of United Geophysical Corporation) will be in this weekend from Pasadena.

Yule Program Planned for Silver Tea

Cathedral City Woman's Club will hold a Silver Tea Wednesday, December 7, at 2 p.m., in the Town Hall, it was announced by club president, Mrs. Otto Paulson. In keeping with the spirit of the holiday season, members of the club will enjoy a program of Christmas music to be presented by the Nellie N. Coffman Junior High School Choir, under the musical direction of Hugh Givens. Tea chairman, Mrs. L. T. Alldredge will be assisted by Meses. Charlie Durr, Mel Crowell and J. Allen Stone. Mrs. Otto Paulson and Mrs. J. R. Andrews will pour. Plans for the Christmas potluck dinner to be held December 14, will be discussed at the meeting, as well as final arrangements for the community Christmas program scheduled for December 21st.

To Christmas in Illinois

The George Bunkers, who maintain a winter home here on Crestview Drive, left Friday for their home in Hinsdale, Illinois where they will spend Christmas. They hope to return the early part of the year and in the meantime they have leased their home to Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Ross of Woodside, California. The Lawrence Mills of Riverside, Illinois, were houseguests of the Bunkers prior to their leaving.

Jeri Sale in Packard-Bell Queen Contest

Jeri Sale, daughter of Mrs. Marvin D. Sale of 1339 Mesa Drive, was among preliminary winners in the Miss Packard-Bell contest to choose a company queen for 1961. Now living in Los Angeles, she is employed as a private secretary at Packard-Bell Electronics. She was one of 15 girls to compete in the semi-finals at the Club Del Mar, with final judging to take place the night of the Holiday Dance at the Hollywood Palladium on December 10. The Queen and members of her court will serve as hostesses at social functions sponsored by the recreation council and the company. Miss Sale attended grade school here and graduated from Palm Springs High School, before attending Santa Monica City College. Her twin sister Jaci is a stewardess with American Airlines.

Tax Seminar in Anaheim December 10

National Women Accountants will sponsor their third annual Tax Seminar Saturday, December 10, at the Gourmet Restaurant at the Disneyland Hotel in Anaheim. Principal instructor will be Kenneth P. Rumburg, C. P. A., prominent Southern California tax consultant, and instructor in accounting at Woodbury College, Los Angeles. The seminar is open to any person or business firm interested in tax planning as this course will cover accounting problems relating to income tax accounting, lease vs purchase, year end tax tactics and many others. The fee is nominal and includes luncheon. Further information may be secured by calling Riverside County Chapter president, Judith McDaniel at Corona, REDWOOD 7-1625.

Opti-Mrs. Club Makes Plans for Christmas Party

With Christmas just around the corner, many clubs and organizations are busy with holiday plans. The Opti-Mrs. Club, meeting at the home of club president Marjorie Baron, discussed plans for a Christmas party and also agreed to assist in the initial fund raising activity for the Palm Springs Foundation for Mentally Retarded Children. This will be a spaghetti dinner to be held at 7 p.m., Friday, December 9, at the Elks Lodge, under the sponsorship of the newly formed MRC Auxiliary. Following the business meeting, refreshments of cake and coffee were served by the hostess.

A RING FIT for a modern day queen is this rich-looking S-curved wedding and engagement set. The large central diamond is accented by the inlay of sparkling melee and the echoing lines of the nesting wedding band, in one of the many dramatic, new designs in new collections to be found at your jeweler. The engagement ring shown has a 27-point stone.

Thirty Attend Gals' Play Day at Thunderbird

Around 30 women attended Wednesday's Gals' Play Day at Thunderbird Country Club, enjoying luncheon and an afternoon of cards in the lounge. Mrs. Harry Clatworthy is chairman and Mrs. Chauncey Needham, co-chairman, for these weekly affairs, with this week's hostesses Mrs. Eric Stainton and Mrs. Frank Godchaux. The door prize of a beautiful gold center arrangement, went to Mrs. James L. Abernathy. Next Wednesday's program will include a style show presented by Edith Morrey.

Cathedral City Asks Posters for Christmas

Cathedral City Woman's Club has broadcast a request to desert artists to paint Christmas posters, to be displayed on telephone poles throughout the downtown area of Cathedral City during the Christmas season. Posters, which should be not less than 16 inches wide and 20 inches high, may be left at the Chamber of Commerce office before December 15th, Francine Melrose, chairman for the Senior Woman's Club's part in the Christmas celebration, announces. She said that lots of posters are needed, and anyone wishing additional information is advised to call her at FA8-2327.

Soroptimists Hear Talk on 'Sky Diving'

Sky Diving was the subject, when Jim Wade, president of Sky Divers of California, spoke informally at Tuesday's luncheon of Soroptimist Club of Palm Springs at the Biltmore Hotel. With two centers, one at Hemet, California and one at Orange, Massachusetts, Wade said there are 7000 members in the United States, and that many eastern college have sky diving teams. Jumping from 10,000 or 12,000 and aiming at a target, the student is followed down by an instructor. Illustrating the speed of the fall, Wade says it takes only 30 seconds to fall from 6000 feet, and the sky diver lands at a speed of seven or eight miles an hour. Soroptimist president Gurli Gilbert conducted a brief business session. Guests were Cora Zerber of Vista, and Vera E. Hess of Madras, Oregon. Tuesday's meeting, which will be held at 12:15 p.m. at the Biltmore, will be a regular business meeting, to which only visiting Soroptimists are invited.

Marine Corps Sets Altitude Mark Here

USMC Ballistic Meteorology Unit Set Record Twice

TWENTYNINE PALMS, CALIF. — "Punch It" were the magic words of the members of the 1st Field Artillery Group Ballistic Meteorology Section when they broke high altitude flight records here.

Breaking one record was not enough for the Marines. October 24 their weather balloon soared to 93,000 feet over the Hi-Desert breaking the old record of 87,000 feet set February 24, 1960.

NOT SATISFIED with that, the next day they sent up another balloon which reached a height of 101,900 feet.

Proper conditioning of the balloon, the use of commercial helium for inflation and crossed fingers of Marines led to a new record of 102,250 feet a few days later.

The records were set by Lance Corporals Jack D. Bryant, Thomas C. Bacholder, Donald R. Edman, George Fauver, Corporal Sam Morrison, Sergeants William J. Bock and Myron C. Wood. They were under the supervision of Master Sergeant Raymond M. Crawford and the technician was Gunnery Sergeant Billy F. Walker.

TRACKING OF THE balloon with a radio transmitter is done by a radio direction finder. The automatic machine will then record the atmospheric conditions that the balloon passes through. When the balloon reached its record making height it was 50 feet in diameter and the recorded temperature was 53 degrees below zero.

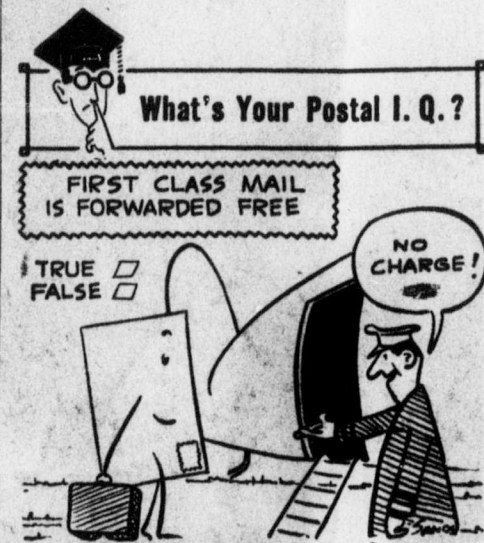

The meteorology section has been trying for three months to break the old record.

All members of the section are school trained by the Army at Fort Sill, Okla.

Telling It Twice

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) — Lewis Taliaferro has his name listed twice in the telephone directory here but under different spellings.

To lessen confusion, Taliaferro, an attorney, entered his name under the phonetic spelling "Toliver," and, of course under the true spelling "Taliaferro".

1. True — No charge is made for forwarding First Class Mail, including postal and post cards, when postage has been fully prepaid by the sender. The address (but not the name) may be changed and the mail re-forwarded as many times as necessary to reach the addressee. This rule also applies to airmail weighing 8 ounces or less. These articles are sent by air when air service to the new address is available.

'Most Admired Woman' Speaks Here Wednesday

Topping the list as the "most admired woman living today in any part of the world," in polls taken by the American Institute of Public Opinion is Mrs. Franklin Delano Roosevelt who will open the Community Forum Series at 8 p.m., Wednesday, in Palm Springs High School auditorium. A tall woman, five feet eleven inches, with silvery hair, Mrs. Roosevelt, despite the long role she has played in world affairs, has always seemed first of all an intuitive woman with woman's concerns, warming to talk of her year-round Christmas shopping, keeping the members of her family always in mind when she sees some small thing one of them would like. She keeps in constant touch with her large family, visiting or being visited by them frequently. Two additional speakers will be presented on this season's program — Harrison Salisbury and Sir Charles Arden-Clarke. Series and individual tickets are available at the office of the Jewish Community Center, 332 West Alejo Road, FA 5-2055. Tickets are also available at Grone's, 184 North Palm Canyon Drive.

Fun Valley Pair Host Fete

By ORPHA GEIER

Wally and Rita Hall of Long Beach entertained Bob and Bea Mageean and David, and Howard and Vivian Obler at a Sunday breakfast at their desert home in Fun Valley.

Joe and Dora Maher, Dora's son and daughter-in-law, Jim and Andrea Hanna and grandchildren Laurie, and Jimmy, all of Anaheim were weekend visitors at the home of Joe's brother, the Richard Mahers.

Harold and Darla Case are back to their North Palm Springs home for the season after having spent the summer at their home in Blissfield, Mich.

Bill and Ann Messer and Pamela drove to Altadena on Friday to spend the weekend at the home of Pamela's grandparents, the Thomases Fagans.

Weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Dever were her sister and family, Bob and Helen Wessell and family from Van Nuys.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Burke of Twentynine Palms were down to attend the horse show in Palm Springs and for a visit here at the home of his brother and sister-in-law, Mike and Molly Burke.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Zimmerman of Sierra Madre who have a trailer home at Tramvue Ranch and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Zimmerman of Pasadena, were out to the desert for the weekend.

Bob and Bille Edgy, formerly of Desert Hot Springs and now of Reno, Nev., were down for a few days' visit and while here attended the Jam Session at the Pleasure Inn on Sunday afternoon.

Newest resident of North Palm Springs is little Richard Dean Norman, who arrived at Casita Hospital in Indio on October 22 and is at home with his parents Richard and Sonya Norman on Covey Street.

Laving Tuesday morning for the Thanksgiving holiday were Bill Lawton, who will visit at the home of his daughter and family in Santa Ana, and Orpha Geier, who will be a guest at the home of her daughter and family, the V. Howard Nickels of Ontario.

State Personal Income Continues Upward Climb

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — California personal income continued its postwar climb during the third quarter of this year, reaching a record $43,833,000,000.

The State Department of Finance reports this as an increase of $735 million over 1960's second quarter, and $2.7 billion over the July-September period last year.

The department said the rate of gain was down slightly. But California income continued to improve its position nationally, and now comprises 10.74 per cent of the national total.

Overture

BOSTON (UPI) — When a new instructor in broadcasting was appointed to the Emerson College faculty, he was surprised to find that the college's otherwise extensive music library had no literature on Gilbert and Sullivan operettas.

The new faculty member, Gilbert N. Sullivan, promptly bought the library an illustrated book on the subject.

YULE TREES COST MORE THIS YEAR

REDDING, Calif. (UPI) — Note to parents: you probably will shell out more money for your Christmas tree this year than you did last year.

The villain is heavy snow, which has forced a halt to most tree cutting operations in Northern California with only part of the planned cutting done.

Tree cutters in the Redding area said Silvertips, more expensive than the usual pine at Christmas time, will be scarce in Los Angeles and the bay area.

DOISNEAU DISCOVERS RIVIERA HABACHI . . .

AND OFFERS KARIN THOMAS A BITE . . .

BRINGING DELIGHT TO BOTH OF THEM.

By GEORGE LAINE
They don't have an official title for people like Robert Doisneau but if they did it would probably be spelled out "Master Photographer."

And it would mean that he's a notch above and beyond the norm for photography experts.

DOISNEAU, PARIS-born and Paris-reared, has just completed a consecutive nine days of photography here in Palm Springs for Fortune Magazine — the results of his lenswork ought to be on view on or before the March — 1961 issue — and liked it here fine.

Through an interpreter — attractive, blonde writer Karin Thomas — Doisneau relaxed in the Lido Lounge of the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel and discussed the matter.

"He says he's seen nothing to compare with Palm Springs," said Karin, as Doisneau's head bobbed up and down.

DOISNEAU DIDN'T stand in enraptured awe over the natural and created beauty of Palm Springs. Businesslike, he reported.

"He says he took between 1,800 and 2,000 exposures here, that they're all in color and that he uses a Rollei, a Leica and a Hasselblad in taking the pictures," said Karin, almost running out of breath.

"Ask him what most inspired him?" asked your reporter. Karin phrased the question and after a moment of impasse in which Karin used a passing beauty to explain what "inspire" means, Doisneau decided.

"He says the Desert Rider's breakfast was his favorite," said Karin.

"Tres beau," said Doisneau. "He says it was very beautiful," added Karin.

HE ALSO PHOTOGRAPHED everything imaginable in the area. He captured — on film — the WOLF fashion luncheon, Florence Horne's cocktail party at Royal Air, trailer parks, golf tournaments, the Riviera's huge pool, the El Mirador's tower, the Spa's unusual design and scores of other subjects.

Fortune apparently selected Doisneau to construct a photographic feature on Palm Springs in the belief that he would see the Village through unprejudiced eyes. They couldn't have made a better choice. He thinks our town is "unimaginable."

THAT'S HIGH PRAISE from a man who has photographed such prime targets as Picasso, De Gaulle, Peugeot, Bardot, Orson Welles and hundreds of others. (Worst target of all? Bardot. "She's murder," said Doisneau, using the first English I'd heard from him.)

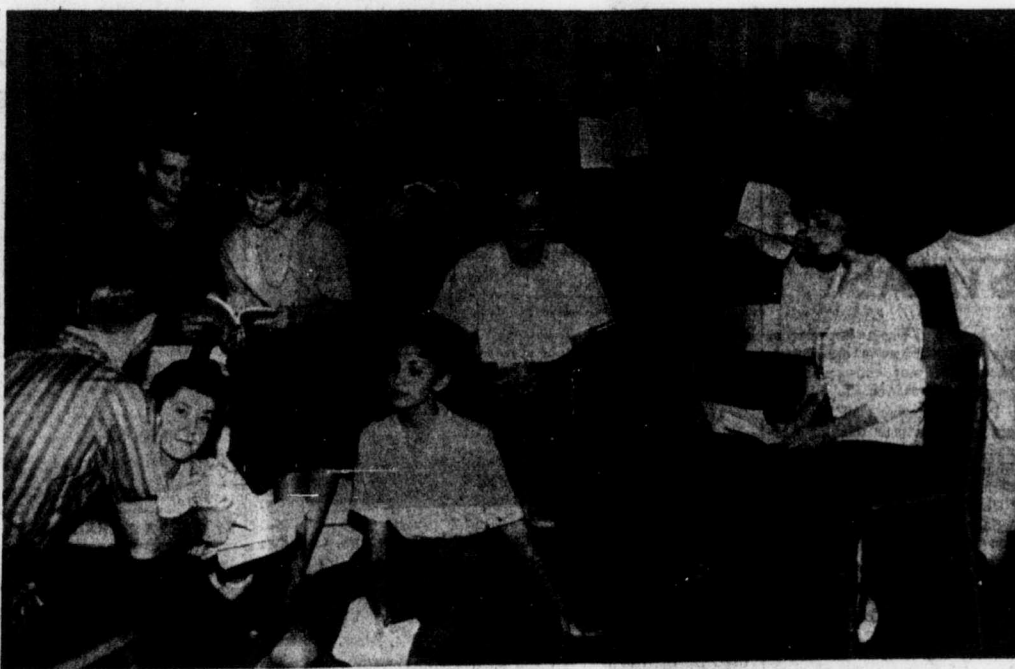

The cream of his efforts — most extensive photo coverage in Village history — are slated for an early issue of Fortune and the Chamber's Cliff Brown has promised to tell me when.

It seems certain that even Doisneau, a critical photographer, will be delighted with what the magazine does with his work for them this time. On his last assignment for Fortune, he climbed a 40-meter radio tower in Portugal almost becoming ill in the swaying tip of it. And the magazine used a picture of the steel structure that he had taken from the ground.

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: Move the Billy Marx Trio opening at Hilltop back to Friday . . . But don't forget it, cause he's great . . .

William Christian Andersen, a descendant of the Danish story teller, and Heinar Grimm, a descendant of the German fairy tale teller, met yesterday at Desert Ho . . . Mili Jackson reports the meeting was one of great interest . . .

Connie Towers ill and missed her opening at Chi Chi last night but lucky old Dave Branauer came up with the replacement of the year in Ann Hathaway . . . I didn't even know she was back in this country . . . Great, great delivery on songs by the girl . . .

AT CHI CHI

Hathaway Sub, Saves The Show

There should have been faces a foot long at Chi Chi last night with the announcement that Connie Towers, who had been slated to star in the new show at the Starlite Room, was bedded with flu.

The gloom was dispelled almost from the moment Ann Hathaway started to sing, however.

Combined with Margo Wade's tap dancing and the vital humor of perennial Village favorite Gary Morton, it gave the Chi Chi a strong, crowd-pleasing show.

YOU LOSE TRACK of entertainers in show business and Miss Hathaway, I suppose, is partially responsible for my losing track of her. (It wasn't ME that sent her to Europe — France, specifically — about four or five years ago.)

She's singing a great deal differently now than prior to her departure or the way she sounded on a Hi-Fi Records album that was purportedly taped in Paris. Where she formerly favored ballads — like "Lush Life" — she now shows a propensity to swing.

When she does sing a ballad, the room knows she means it. (There's an almost Billie Holiday touch to her "Love for Sale" and she does a chorus of "Hard Hearted Hannah" ala Billie, too.)

MORTON'S COMEDY, which last year was largely a thing between him and the Bill Alexander band, started getting through to the crowd last night and the result was a delight to watch. Morton, given impetus by the opening nighters, took the comedy ball and ran with it. Here are some samples:

"We've been having some trouble with our weather here but the bureau says it'll be 75 tomorrow — 50 during the day and 25 at night."

"Have you seen this new hotel down on Palm Canyon? All glass. The windows are made of brick." "I figure I'm wearing maybe four or five hundred dollars in clothes to impress you people. But such a hole I've got in my T-shirt."

His takeoffs on commercials and his famous lines from great paintings also flipped the opening nighters.

ED SULLIVAN has this thing going with tap dancers (and flame eaters, jugglers, unicycle riders, etc.) and so the Chi Chi feels compelled to bring us something in that line.

As a tap dancer, Margo Wade does her work well.

But I thought she was far more effective in her "story" dance — an impression of a girl being stood up on a date — than in any of the rather trite tap figures she delivered.

All in all, it's a good show. And it's great to see Ann Hathaway back. (Branauer can send us substitutes like this whenever. Or — if he's really smart — he can send her down to do an entire show.)

JR. SCIENTIST

MY HOBBY IS making models. While I was in Mrs. Cassidy's room last year, we studied California's oil industry. I helped put together a model of an oil field. Two apple boxes were the base. This model showed a cross section of the layers of rock where oil is found. We made the trucks, jeeps, and tools used by men to find oil. The derrick and storage tanks were even connected by pipe lines to show how the oil moves from the ground to the oil tankers. It made the study of oil more interesting to all of us. This is the way it looked. By Robert Cole. (Write and explain your project or experiment. Mrs. Scholl has three nice children. Vicki, her little girl is in my room, and she is nine years old. Her child Penny is 12 years old and the oldest is 15. Her name is Susan. I think that the whole family is very, very, very nice. When I was taking swimming lessons, I had Mr. Scholl for my

Accept Invitations

MIAMI, Fla. — Two ends, Henry Opperman of Penn State and Gerald Burch of Georgia Tech, have accepted invitations to play in the North-South College All-Star football game Dec. 26.

THE KDES MOBILE UNIT will be on hand at the fourth annual U. S. National Senior Golf Championship, Dec. 6 through Dec. 11 at the three challenging courses, Bermuda Dunes, Eldorado and La Quinta Clubs. Pictured above are Guy Knight, left, and Cliff Miller of KDES. Play by play coverage of this classic golfing event will be broadcast by KDES, presented five times daily.

Seniors to Start Play Tomorrow

Pro-Am Event Opener

Following a weekend of sightseeing and trying out the local golf courses, almost 400 golfers, members of the United States National Seniors Open Golf Association, will tee off in the first event of the week-long fourth annual Championship tournament of the organization tomorrow.

An 18-hole Pro-Am tournament is scheduled on all three courses to be played in the Championship — La Quinta, Eldorado and Bermuda Dunes.

FOLLOWING a cocktail party and rally tomorrow night at Desi Arnaz' Indian Wells Hotel, the visitors will take Wednesday off as a day of rest, although several events have been planned for them. There will be another rally at the hotel Wednesday night when golf movies will be shown.

Play in the tournament starts Thursday morning at 8 o'clock at Eldorado, Bermuda Dunes and La Quinta. Eighteen holes will be played Thursday and Friday and Saturday on each course, the golfers alternating so that each plays each course for the first 54 holes of the tournament.

SATURDAY, AT the close of the 54 holes, the low 80 golfers and ties, will be paired for the 18 hole final of the 72-hole event on Sunday, the others dropping out.

Bermuda Dunes will be the site of the final day of play.

Seventy pros are entered in the event and 298 amateurs, all seniors. They will play in foursomes with different pairings each day.

THE TOURNAMENT is in its fourth year. It was first played at Spokane, Wash., where the association was formed in 1957. In its third year, it was moved to Palm Springs playing two courses. This year it returns to Palm Springs, using three courses.

Fred Wood, Vancouver, Can., won the first tournament in a sudden death play-off with Gene Sarazen.

Willie Goggin of French Lick Springs, Ind., took the 1958 event with a 270, with Sarazen second one stroke behind.

Groggin repeated in 1959, the first tourney held here, tying with Smiley Quick, Los Angeles and Olin Dutra of Palm Springs at 289 and winning in a play-off.

Pott Overcomes Snead to Win Open by One

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. — Golf's old guard had its notice today from Johnny Pott and company that the old gray game ain't what it used to be.

Pott, a 25-year-old from Shreveport, La., came sailing out of nowhere with a final round four under 68 to make up three shots on Sammy Snead and snatch the West Palm Beach Open from the Slammer.

$78,533 Winner

AGUA CALIENTE, Mexico — It was a weekend for payoffs at Caliente track with a $78,533 winner in the 5-10 handicapping contest and a $1,253 prize in a daily double. Both of the big winnings came on Sunday's 12-race card with an unidentified better tabbing all six winners in the 5-10.

HOST PROS for the fourth annual U. S. National Senior Open Golf Championship confer prior to the tournament which gets underway Tuesday with over 400 amateurs and professionals competing for $20,000 in cash and prizes. From left are Richard Goeckner, La Quinta; Ed Vines, Bermuda Dunes, and Walter Burkemo, Eldorado. The finals will be played Sunday, Dec. 11, at Bermuda Dunes Country Club.

VARSITY, JAYVEE CAGERS SEE FIRST ACTION TUESDAY

Palm Springs High School basketball season swings into action tomorrow night when coach Jim Workman's Varsity and coach Dick Hough's B squad oppose Riverside Poly High Varsity and B squads on the local gymnasium floor.

The B game is slated to start at 6 p.m. with the Varsity taking over immediately after the Bs finish.

Workman's tentative starting team includes Tyrone Taylor, rf; Carlos Reyes, lf; Gus Walton, c; Mark Edwards, rg; Ron Studebaker, lg.

Gary Lawrence and Mike Hart are expected to see plenty of service too. Others in reserve are

Celtics Prove Not Over Hill

By United Press International

The Boston Celtics tonight will be out to convince the remaining disbelievers who think the National Basketball champions are over the hill when they battle the Los Angeles Lakers in the Los Angeles Sport Arena.

It is the only NBA game scheduled tonight.

Sunday night the Celtics, listening to predictions that they were starting to fade after a couple of losses, roared back to dump the Lakers 113-103, in Los Angeles, despite 40 points by Los Angeles Elgin Baylor.

End Hockey Tour

MOSCOW — The Red Army's Central Sports Club, eight-time champions of the Soviet Union, downed Canada's Chatham Maroons, 5-2, Sunday in the Canadian team's seventh and final game of its hockey tour. The Maroons won one game, tied one and lost five.

PODRES, SNIDER AVAILABLE IF POT SWEETENED

ST. LOUIS — The New York Yankees can have Johnny Podres and Duke Snider if they'll merely sweeten the pot a bit.

So far the Yankees' offer to Los Angeles has been a catcher Elston Howard, and the Dodgers are definitely interested. One more Yankee player would clinch the deal and all it would take would be southpaw pitcher Billy Short.

While the Dodgers and Yankees were trying to get together today on the official opening of the major league meetings, the St. Louis Cardinals, Milwaukee Braves and Philadelphia Phillies also were getting closer to a three-cornered deal.

The Cards have offered first baseman Joe Cunningham and infielder Alex Grammas to the Braves for outfielder Bill Burton as the first part of the proposed deal, and the Braves then would send Cunningham and outfielder Wes Covington to the Phils for reliever Dick Farrell.

EAGLES WIN TITLE, 3 TIED IN WESTERN

By JOE SARGIS
United Press International

The Philadelphia Eagles, inspired by the "quiet man" and led by the "fidgety one," celebrated their first National Football League Eastern Division title in 11 years today, but it's anybody's guess who they'll play in the championship game on Dec. 26, Jan. 1 or Jan. 8.

With Norm Van Brocklin, the "fidgety one," taking advantage of every opportunity, and Coach Buck Shaw, the "quiet man," telling them they could do it, the Eagles defeated the pesky St. Louis Cardinals, 20-6, Sunday for their ninth straight victory that nailed down the Eastern Division title.

VAN BROCKLIN, who admits to nervousness in the minutes just before the start of a game (and he's a veteran of 12 pro seasons), threw touchdown passes of 22 and 25 yards to Pete Retzlaff and Tommy McDonald and Bobby Walston kicked a pair of field goals for all the Philadelphia points that assured the Eagles of a title berth for the first time since 1949—when they also won the NFL championship by beating the Los Angeles Rams.

Meanwhile, in the Western Division, the Detroit Lions defeated the defending champion Baltimore Colts, 20-15, the Green Bay Packers walloped the Chicago Bears, 41-13, and the San Francisco Forty Niners beat the Los Angeles Rams, 23-7, to create a three-way first-place tie between the Packers, Colts and Forty Niners.

ALL THREE CLUBS have identical 6-4 won-lost records and each has two games left to play. And to add further to the logjam, the Bears, with a 5-4-1 mark, are only a half-game away and the Lions, at 5-5, are one game behind.

Either Green Bay or San Francisco could fall out of the running by Saturday when the two meet at San Francisco, but there is always the possibility of a tie, which would give both a "life."

On Sunday, the Colts are at Los Angeles, the Bears play the Browns at Cleveland and Detroit plays host to the Dallas Cowboys.

DALLAS, BEATEN in 10 straight games in its first season in the NFL, turned the tables on the Giants Sunday by holding the defending Eastern Division champs to a 31-31 tie, while the Browns took a half-game lead over New York in the battle for a berth in the "runnerup bowl" game at Miami Jan. 8 by beating the Washington Redskins, 27-16.

In the American Football League, the Dallas Texans delayed the clinching of the Eastern Division title by Houston with a 24-0 shutout over the Oilers; the Los Angeles Chargers clinched at least a tie for the Western Division title by whipping the Oakland Raiders, 41-17; the New York Titans staged off a late rally to beat the Denver Broncos in the snow, 30-27, and the Buffalo Bills named the Boston Patriots, 38-14.

WELL, THE FOOTBALL TEAM DID BACK TONORROW.

TOMORROW THEY'LL BE BACK TWO DAYS... THEY PLAY OUT OF TOWN!

NO... BUT THERE INITIAL PLAY WAS A LITTLE LONG ON ACCOUNT OF THEIR FORGET TO PUT UP GOAL POSTS AT THE OPPOSITE END OF THE FIELD.

HOW FAR DO THEY GO?

THEY RUN THIRTY MILES TO THE SUNNYSIDE ROUND FARGO FORSE THEY FOUND ANOTHER SET OF GOAL POSTS TO SCORE THROUGH.

WHY THREE DAYS THOUGH?

FIRST TIME OVER THEY FOUND THEY FORGOT THE BALL AND HAD TO SNAKE BACK ON A NAKED REVERSE TO FETCH IT.

TELEVISION NOTES

James Komack, who is the playboy Navy Dentist in Jackie Cooper's "Hennessey" series on CBS, has written a script and sold it to Cooper's company. "Harvey's Doll" is the title of the episode, and naturally Komack wrote in a good role for himself. The actor used to write his own material when he was a night club comedian.

OPPOSITION TO CITY DEVELOPING

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—Opposition to the incorporation of this resort community became apparent today when a local resident — James A. Collins — reported that he was mustering forces to fight the attempt to make Desert Hot Springs a city.

Spurred by what he claimed were "many influential local persons," Collins issued a statement to the press saying that "a highly active group of citizens are proceeding with determination to defeat the proposition when it comes to a vote on January 10, 1961."

HE SAID the name of his committee is "The Desert Hot Springs Committee Opposed to Incorporation," and said they were opposed to incorporation due to the following proposals which he said are being mentioned as planned by some city proponents:

—The new city plans to take over the water district, discharge the manager, and the district will be run by the city council.

—A complete sewer system for the city. (On this subject the opponents flash facts and figures which tell of great bonded indebtedness to the taxpayers.)

—Installation of curbs and gutters covering "several miles."

No one has told them how much it is going to cost to form a city or how much salaries of city employees will be.

IN CLOSING the press release Collins said:

"The people of Desert Hot Springs have an important decision to make on Jan. 10, 1961. If we vote for incorporation, and our Village becomes a city, we must be prepared to assume the added responsibilities and expenses."

120,000 Acres Designated for Recreation Use

Seven sites totaling over 120,000 acres in San Bernardino County have been classified as Park and Recreational Public Land Management Areas, the Los Angeles Office of the Bureau of Land Management announced today.

Nolan F. Keil, assistant to the state supervisor, in announcing the classification, said the lands have been identified as having a high potential for multiple purpose use and development for public recreational, camping and park uses along with grazing, wildlife conservation, watershed protection and mining. These areas had been under investigation by the Bureau and San Bernardino County for some time, he said.

The classification, Keil said, means that these lands will be retained in public ownership to provide for an orderly development by Federal, State, or local governmental agencies, and other publicly interested groups.

A formal program will be worked out with local governmental agencies, recreation and sportsmen groups, and others to provide needed facilities, Keil said.

MODEL TRAIN FOR CHRISTMAS —PLUS SLANG

NEW YORK — Parents whose youngster gets a model train for Christmas may be surprised shortly afterward to hear such remarks as these:

"Get that goat off the high iron!"

"Hook that muzzle loader to the reefer!"

"Give that wildcat an alley!"

The translations in order:

"Get that yard engine off the main track!"

"Hook that handfired locomotive to the refrigerator car!"

"Give that runaway locomotive a clear track!"

The Lionel Corp., model train manufacturer, has compiled a glossary of these colorful terms, and if parents apply themselves between now and Christmas they may be able to converse with Junior after the holidays.

Our modern image of Santa Claus evolved from the description given him by Clement Clark Moore in his "The Night Before Christmas," written in 1822.

SANDPIPER

Long Holiday Brings Horde

The long holiday and ideal weather combined to bring visitors and owners and friends alike to the Sandpiper where the popular own-your-own apartment community enjoyed its busiest week in Palm Desert.

Two new owners were hosting friends. Mrs. Robert McInerney, Sr., new Sandpiper cottage owner, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Robert McInerney, Jr., from Saratoga. Their young son, Bob, was also on hand.

A second new owner, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hudson of Glendale were hosts to their son, Allan, and his new wife, enjoying the seclusion of the Hudson apartment for their honeymoon. Young Mr. Hudson has just returned from the service.

A second honeymooner was also on hand last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Gary McCurdy of San Diego enjoying the Hastings Garland cottage.

Third new addition to the Sandpiper community is Pebble Beach industrialist Wheeler Farish and his wife. The Farish's are at the desert retreat for the year where they will pay golf and relax between his airplane trips to various interests throughout the U. S.

Also back for the entire season are Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Brokaw. The Brokaws were greeted by the Sandpiper neighbors as "old friends and neighbors" after their retreat at their Balboa Bay Club cottage during the summer months.

Entertaining over the weekend were a score of Sandpiper owners. Among the list were Mr. and Mrs. James Greims from Encino, who played host to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Erickson of their home city.

his near-the-pool location, with Mr. and Mrs. William Clark of Balboa on hand along with the Richard Steeles of Newport and Mrs. Theodore Dillingham of Hawaii. They were joined by Frank Sinatra Jr., of Beverly Hills, Douglas Hall of Pasadena, and Larry Bradford of San Francisco.

Clarence Beesemysers of Santa Ana acted as host to their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Marcellus of Anaheim. The Marcellus' celebrated their anniversary at the Sandpiper.

Other Sandpiper activity included the visit of beach area accountant Watson Edicott and his wife, and Sandpiper builder-developer George M. Holstein III, his wife and three daughters.

The Robert Lintz apartment was Thanksgiving "home" for Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kirkpatrick and their children, Gary, Sharon and John, all of Long Beach. Other recent guests of the roofing company owner were the Warren Bauers of Long Beach and their son, Warren, Jr.

THE CIVIL WAR—A LOOK BACKWARD

South Carolina Started Exodus From Union

By MERTON T. AKERS
United Press International
One hundred years ago last weekend (8 Nov. 15, 1860) — a simply worded enactment of the South Carolina legislature became a law. It called for a convention to consider repealing the state's original ratification of the Constitution of the United States. As simple as the language was, the portent was enormous.
The law provided for delegates to the convention to be elected Dec. 6. They were to assemble Dec. 17.

IN THE FALL OF 1860 the question whether a state had the constitutional right to secede from the Union already was as old as the republic itself, which had recently turned three score and 10. The possibility of secession had been foreseen by makers of the Constitution. Alexander Hamilton in "The Federalist," the essays he, James Madison and John Jay wrote in 1787-88 explaining the document in the campaign for ratification, recognized that the issue might arise.

Hamilton wrote in No. 16 of the Federalist Papers that the possibility of revolution within a state always was present and that if rebellious forces attained enough headway then no form of government, republic or monarchy, could always avoid or control them.

JOHN C. CALHOUN, South Carolina statesman, put the issue into simpler language in 1831 during the Nullification crisis. Calhoun argued in his Fort Hill address—so-called because he wrote it in the quiet of his plantation of the same name — that the Constitution was a compact among sovereign states with certain powers delegated to a central government. If the contracting parties could not judge infractions of the powers by the central government, Calhoun argued, then they had signed away their rights to an irresponsible body with no hope of control.

He held that a state's only recourse against any infraction by the central government was to interpose to halt what they believed was the unconstitutional practice. The central government's redress then, he held, was to use the amendment machinery of the Constitution and submit the issue to the states with three-fourths necessary to ratify.

CALHOUN CALLED his doctrine interposition. A commoner name was State's Rights. But Calhoun's theory later would be used as a political defense of slavery.

The Nullification crises arose over a tariff law with which the South, and South Carolina particularly, disagreed. President Andrew Jackson met the issue head on. In a proclamation Dec. 10, 1832, Jackson declared the nation to be indivisible, that state must obey the laws, no state could leave the Union and that the whole force of the federal government would be used if necessary to collect revenue in South Carolina.

One historian said of the proclamation:

"If any single date can be fixed as that on which a given date was predetermined, the Civil War became inevitable on Dec. 10, 1832."

BUT SOUTH CAROLINA secessionists in 1860 were facing James Buchanan, not Andrew Jackson. A Pennsylvania bachelor, Buchanan came to the presidency in 1856 without serious opposition.

The quick and fiery reaction to the election of Lincoln worried Buchanan, but not enough to force him into action. Several times Buchanan discussed the worsening situation with his cabinet members, who were about equally divided between northerners and southerners. Once he proposed a constitutional convention to reach some compromise but went no further than to discuss it. He remarked that disunion seemed inevitable.

AT ONE OF THE CABINET meetings Buchanan read a document, the burden of which was that the South must submit to the election of Lincoln and indicated force would be used to halt secession. That brought violent dissent from the southern cabinet members and moved Secretary of Treasury Howell Cobb of Georgia and Secretary of Interior Jacob Thompson of Mississippi to summon Jefferson Davis from his plantation. Davis was a U. S. senator from Mississippi and a former secretary of war under President Franklin Pierce. He had played a sort of second lead previously in the political in - fighting between the North and the South and now was going back to the capital to rehearse a bigger role.

DAVIS HASTENED back to the capital just about the time — Nov. 15 — that a momentous order cleared the War Department. The order — Special Order No. 137 — said that Maj. Robert Anderson, 1st Artillery, would immediately take over command of the defenses of Charleston, S. C., and the defenses included a fort called Sumter.

Later, Secretary of War John B. Floyd would say that he had picked Anderson himself, a decision which he would live to regret. Anderson was a Kentuckian, and married to a Georgia wife. His father had helped in the unsuccessful defense of Ft. Moultrie in the Revolution and had been captured by the British. Moultrie, a short cannon shot from Sumter, would be Anderson's headquarters. Despite his southern background Maj. Anderson was a Union man. Floyd apparently did not know that.

TIME FOR THE MEETING of Congress was approaching rapidly and on Nov. 17 Buchanan asked his attorney general, Jeremiah S. Black, a Pennsylvanian, for an opinion on what powers the President had to meet the emergency. Black replied later that the Constitution had not provided for the secession of a state and contained no legal means for the President to force a state to remain in, adding that there was no question that the President was obligated to enforce the laws. Buchanan also called in another Pennsylvania lawyer, Edwin M. Stanton, for advice. What Stanton told Buchanan is not recorded but the President seemed to stiffen against the secessionists after the conference. Stanton was destined for a big share in the strife to come as Lincoln's secretary of war.

JACOB THOMPSON noted the stiffening of Buchanan, but said: "Old Buck, at heart, is right and with us."

But "Old Buck's" message to Congress would say neither "yes" nor "no" to the secessionists and the drift to war gained momentum.

(Next week — Maj. Anderson takes command of Jt. Sumter.)
